

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am responding to your recent request for credit information. Meijer is a privately-owned corporation and does not publish financial statements. I have provided the following information to support our credit worthiness and to authorize you to contact our bank as well as our trade references to establish our business relationship. Exemption certificates and W9's will be provided upon request; please send your request to TaxDept@meijer.com. We do not complete individual credit applications because so many contain blanket term agreements, and also because the terms your company agrees upon are negotiated with the particular buyer you work with and those terms are incorporated into each purchase order.
